

Sean Belnick

How he got started...

Sean Belnick started BizChair when he was only 14 years old. Using a 500 dollar investment, and the guidance of his stepfather, Gary Glazer, who is a veteran of the office furniture business, Belnick was able to start his business. Sean began selling chairs out of his bedroom, before moving to a bigger warehouse space. Eventually, his business was moved to an even bigger facility at 100,000 sq. feet.

Type of Business

BizChair is private, intermediary business.

What are they doing now...

BizChair is currently growing in sales, and using only the internet to sell its chairs.

Interesting Facts...

The owner started the business when he was only 14 by selling chairs out of his bedroom with only a $500 investment.

Description of the business...

BizChair sells a variety of chairs and furniture including office chairs, stack chairs, folding chairs, office furniture, restaurant furniture, and home furniture. All of the sales are based online.

Link:
<http://www.bizchair.co>